

Introduction

The CV-BA battery adapter has been designed to fit exclusively in any of the 4 additional charging inlets of the Blueshape CVS8X V-lock battery charger.

The CV-BA features a robust design for daily use with a cable connection of convenient length for both a neat and comfortable set-up and for an accurate electrical performance.

In addition, this unit is also able of transmitting battery data to the CVS8X for further processing by the BSCVMon battery monitoring system.

Features and Specifications

- Designed exclusively for V-lock Li-Ion batteries
- To be used only on CVS8X charger to extend the total number of channels up to 8
- Allows data communication between Blueshape chargers and batteries
- Robust and reliable construction with a 50 cm connecting cable for easy charger set-up

Accessories supplied:

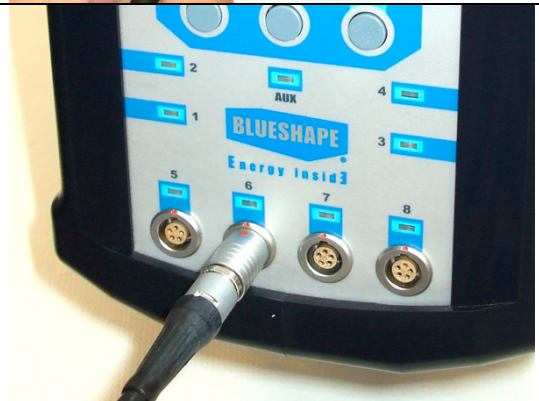

- 1 x Instruction manual

Instructions for use

1. Align the CV-BA connector with the related plug on the charger. Use the red dot as a reference mark.

2. Push the connector in, until it is firmly locked.

3. To unplug, pull the connector out in the direction of the arrow.

